WELL DONE

SYDNEY 23 MAY

It was an annual report launch with a heart, attended by almost as many kids in school uniform as bigwigs in suits. The Australian Indigenous Education Foundation celebrated its fifth year which was attended by Investec chair and AIEF patron David Gonski, Qantas CEO Alan Joyce, Irish ambassador Noel White, AIEF CEO Andrew Penfold, Crescent Capital Partners chair David Mortimer, News Limited group editorial director Campbell Reid and Australian Ireland Fund director Teresa Keating. The AIEF has raised more than $57 million which provides scholarships to indigenous students.
